

THE BOURBON NEWS

SWIFT CHAMP, EDITOR AND OWNER.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

To The Democrats of Bourbon County.

I earnestly request my friends to come to the polls on next Saturday, February 14th, 1903, and to see that their neighbors come out to vote. When this is done I have no fears of the result. Very truly,
CHAS. E. BUTLER.

No Action Taken.—The City Council failed to do anything in regard to the Library question last night, owing to the fact that there was not a quorum present when the vote was to be taken.

Call at the office of Singer Sewing Machine Company, and get prices and terms on machines.

The proposition will be considered by the stockholders of the company.

Shooting at Hutchison.

Dan Skinner, aged about 30 years, a day laborer, shot and dangerously wounded a man named D. Plunkett, a respectable farmer of this county, at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, at Hutchison Station, on the Bourbon side of the county line.

The bullet entered the right side near the shoulder blade, passing entirely through the body, coming out on the left.

Mr. Plunkett was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, at Lexington, for treatment. An examination showed that the wound was a very serious one, but not necessarily fatal.

A posse of officers went in pursuit of Skinner, but he made good his escape.

Things the Good People Should Know.

You have the opportunity now to have your clothes made here at home at prices to compete with any made away house. When we make you a suit it benefits three or four working people, who spend their money at home. Now, all we ask is for the people to call and see our goods and get our prices and we will convince you it is to your interest to buy your clothes at home, where you can see them made and have them fitted to suit you, and at prices that will surprise you.

What MITCHELL Says

I was glad a few days since, when I secured the agency for "Venetian Chocolate Bon-bons." I was still "gladder" when the goods came in, for honest, I have never seen a Bon-bon so fine. And just think, the price is only 40 cents for a pound, and you can't get a finer candy, even if you pay eighty cents for it.

I want you to stop in and eat a piece.

Yours Truly,

C. B. MITCHELL.

PUBLIC RENTING

—OF—

GRASS AND CORN LAND

House and Stock Barn.

As Committee of G. G. White, I will rent publicly in front of the Court-House site in Paris, Ky., on Saturday, February 21st, 1903, at 12 o'clock, noon, about 140 acres of grazing land, being part of the said G. G. White's Brooks Farm, lying on the North Middletown pike, near Paris.

Also, about 25 acres of corn land, part of said Brooks Farm, lying on said Turnpike near the Paris Distilling Company's property.

(Said corn and grass land both to be surveyed).

Also a good two-story frame residence with yard, garden and grass-plot attached, containing in all about 5 acres, situate on said Brooks farm, in the rear of and adjoining the property of the Paris Distilling Company.

Also a fine stock barn with large number of box stalls and paddocks connected therewith, containing in all about 4 acres of land; situate on said Brooks Farm, near main residence.

Use of track goes with barn.

Possession of the said frame residence given on March 5th, 1903, and of the balance of the above property on March 1, 1903. Term expires March 1, 1904.

Renter required to give negotiable note with good security, due March 1, 1904, payable to me as Committee.
